

Ganja feiert mit großem Konzert das Erbe von Volkskünstler Bulbul!

Ganja ehrte den berühmten Opernsänger Bulbul mit einem Konzert, das klassische azerbaijani Musik feierte und junge Talente förderte.

Ganja, Aserbaidshan - In a dazzling celebration of musical heritage, Ganja city has rolled out the red carpet for a spectacular concert honoring the legendary opera singer Bulbul, a true titan of Azerbaijani culture. This event, part of the ambitious „Cultural Wealth of the People“ project, showcases the rich tapestry of national musical theater and vocal artistry, paying tribute to Bulbul’s monumental contributions to the arts.

The concert, organized by the Ganja State Philharmonic Hall, featured an impressive lineup of performers, including the esteemed People’s Artist Sevinc Ibrahimova and Honored Culture Worker Mehpara Jafarova. Audiences were treated to a mesmerizing array of performances, with beloved romances by Uzeyir Hajibayli like „Sevgili canan“ and „Sənsiz,“ alongside stirring pieces from Asaf Zeynalli, Fikrat Amirov, and Muslim Magomayev. The evening resonated with the powerful notes of Aslan Shah’s aria from „Shah Ismail,“ captivating attendees and celebrating the depth of Azerbaijani musical talent.

Celebrating Cultural Heritage

The „Cultural Wealth of the People“ initiative aims to elevate classical Azerbaijani music, engaging modern youth and broadening the reach of folk traditions. This concert is just one of many events dedicated to honoring the giants of Azerbaijani culture, following previous evenings that celebrated the works of renowned composers like Fikret Amirov and Gara Garayev. With media partners such as Azernews.Az and Trend.Az supporting the event, the concert not only highlighted the artistic legacy of Bulbul but also reinforced the importance of preserving and promoting the nation's cultural treasures.

Details
Ort	Ganja, Aserbaidshan

Besuchen Sie uns auf: die-nachrichten.at