

Ackman bricht das Schweigen: Warum Trump besser für Amerika ist!

Der Demokrat Bill Ackman erklärt in einem 33-Punkte-Plan, warum er Trump unterstützt und zeigt mögliche Gemeinsamkeiten auf.

Afghanistan - In a bold move that's shaking the political landscape, renowned Democrat hedge fund manager Bill Ackman has thrown his support behind Republican nominee Donald Trump. In a compelling 33-point manifesto shared on X, Ackman critiques the Biden-Harris administration, calling its policies "actions and policies that unfortunately our most aggressive adversaries would likely implement if they wanted to destroy America from within." His statement resonates amid a growing trend of Democrats reconsidering their allegiance.

Ackman emphasizes that beyond politics, his investment acumen suggests that a Trump administration could rejuvenate American businesses. With his funds invested in top U.S. companies, he predicts these businesses would thrive in a better-governed America. In today's climate of political division, his reasoning pushes forward a refreshingly straightforward narrative—common sense is a rare gem in the current discourse.

Common Sense or Common Ground?

As Ackman lays out his grievances against the current administration, he points to "open borders," reckless spending policies, and the chaotic withdrawal from Afghanistan as major failures. From mass releases of criminals to the drastic curbing of U.S. energy production, his list is a clarion call for reevaluating what used to be considered common sense. “This list of 33 policy points all Americans could, and should, agree on,” he insists, starkly contrasts the current polarized view of politics where such statements might now be labeled “far right”.

Former Democrat and now Republican, retired Gen. Mike Flynn, echoed Ackman’s sentiments, stressing the importance of hearing diverse viewpoints to discern the truth. “I always believed that the best way to get to the truth is to hear the best arguments on all sides,” he noted under Ackman’s post, highlighting the increasing need for dialogue in a sharply divided nation.
